Indigenous Youth Programmer, Indigenous Youth Employment Program (IYEP)

The Indigenous Youth Programmer supports the IYEP Coordinator to plan, implement, and evaluate the Indigenous Youth Employment Program. The Indigenous Youth Employment Program supports Indigenous youth between the ages of 17-29 to overcome barriers and acquire skills and training to achieve sustainable employment. The position works out of Drive Youth Employment Services, Frog Hollow Neighbourhood Houses' youth satellite, and work in the community.

We are a high energy, driven, and creative team that engages youth in the Hastings-Sunrise neighbourhood. Our work is centered around inclusion and equity, to build social connection and to break down discrimination through community building. We strongly encourage applications from individuals who identify as Indigenous, Black, and People of Colour, individuals with disabilities, and members of LGBTQIA2S+ communities.

Hours:	28 hours per week (Monday – Friday)
Contract:	ASAP until March 31, 2023 with possibility of extension
Starting Wage:	ANHBC Band 7 $19.87 - $24.45/hour

Duties and Responsibilities:

- Support the Coordinator to oversee daily operations of the Indigenous Youth Employment Program
- Provide a physically and emotionally safe environment for all youth participants, staff and volunteers
- Mediate, counsel, and act as a role model for participants/volunteers
- Provide support to youth in the program, both 1-1 and group based
- Co-facilitate training workshops and share input for curriculum
- Promote, market, educate and solicit the community and service agencies to recruit Indigenous youth with barriers to employment
- Uphold a high degree of professional integrity; represent the organization at community meetings
- Network with community partners including employers to secure and sustain work placements
- Administrative duties including monthly reporting, program scheduling, and purchasing within program budget
- Other duties as assigned by the Program Coordinator
